RECYCLED SILVER DECLARATION

As member partner of the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC), Morellato Group (Morellato hereafter) has the responsibilities and obligations to play key roles in the supply chain, in particular in terms of compliance of products, appropriate measures, communication and co-operation.

Morellato recognizes the potential of recycled silver as sustainable alternative to mined silver and is committed to rigorously verifying the authenticity of recycled silver sources to avoid unknowingly endorsing unethical practices and to achieving the highest levels of transparency within its precious metals value chain.

In this context, suppliers will:

- Complying with all relevant national and international laws, principles and regulations notably related to human rights, fundamental freedom, including (but not limited to) those relating to anti-corruption, anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing, health and safety and the environment, as set out in Morellato's Sustainability Report;
- Guaranteeing due diligence in the supply chain, in accordance with the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Silver from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas;
- Guaranteeing all recycled silver used is responsibly sourced, and genuinely originates from recycled jewelry or e-waste according to RJC definition on Chain-of-Custody Standard 2024, thereby circumventing the associated social and environmental risks prevalent in conventional mining;
- Providing Morellato with information, when requested, about the origin and the journey of the recycled silver supplied to Morellato;
- Inform Morellato as soon as the supplier becomes aware of any incident in which it has not met, or is not likely to meet, these requirements.

Kind regards,
Elena Biasiolo
